Copyright Transfer and Publishing Condition Acceptance

The author declares s/he is the sole author and exclusive owner of the work or s/he has the authorization from co-author(s) to sign this statement.

The author declares that the following contribution:

Title:

Author(s):

submitted to Journal of e-Learning and Knowledge Society (Je-LKS) is original and that it has neither been published previously nor is currently being considered for publication elsewhere.

The author agrees that Sle-L (Italian e-Learning Association) has the right to publish the material sent for inclusion in the journal Je-LKS.

The author agrees that articles may be published in digital format (on the Internet or on any digital support and media) and in printed format, including future re-editions, in any language and in any license including proprietary licenses, creative commons license or open access license. Sle-L may also use parts of the work to advertise and promote the publication.

The author declares s/he has all the necessary rights to authorize the editor and Sle-L to publish the work.

The author assures that the publication of the work in no way infringes the rights of third parties, nor violates any penal norms and absolves Sle-L from all damages and costs which may result from publication.

The author declares further s/he has received written permission without limits of time, territory, or language from the rights holders for the free use of all images and parts of works still covered by copyright, without any cost or expenses to Sle-L.
